

Curriculum vitae

Family name	Olenenko
First name	Anna
E-mail	olenenkoag@ukr.net
Languages	Ukrainian, Russian (native speaker) English (fluent)
Education	Ph.D. degree in History, Institute of Ukrainian Archeography and Source Study of National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, 2013 Master degree in History, with Honors, Zaporizhia National University, 2007 Bachelor degree in History, with Honors, Zaporizhia National University, 2006
Academic Career	2016 till now Dean, Khortytsia National Academy 2013-2016 Lecturer, Khortytsia National Academy 2007-2013 Researcher, Oral History Archive, Zaporizhia National University
Research interests	Environmental history, History of Steppe Ukraine, Animal studies, Oral history
Membership	Y. Novytskyi Zaporizhia Scientific Society European Society for Environmental History
Selected publications	Olenenko, A.G., “The First Attempts of Ukrainian Steppe’s Afforestation in the Last Quarter of the 18 th century”, http://historians.in.ua/index.php/doslidzhennya/1246-anna-olenenko-pershi-sproby-zalisennia-pivdannoukrainskoho-stepu-v-ostannii-chverti-xviii-st (in Ukrainian) Olenenko, A.G., “Environmental History of Russia and Ukraine: Points of Intersection and Regional Features”, Environmental history in Russia: Stages of Development and Promising Research Directions. Materials of the International scientific conference (Elabuga, 13-15 November, 2014) , Elabuga: Elabuga Institute of Kazan Federal University Press, 2004, pp. 105-122 (in Russian) Olenenko, A.G. Ukraine and Camels: Features of the Incorporation into the Steppe Landscape // http://www.environmentandsociety.org/arcadia/ukraine-and-camels-features-incorporation-steppe-landscape
Grants and awards	European Society for Environmental History Small Workshop Funding Award (2015) Research scholarship of German historical institute in Moscow for work in archives and libraries of Moscow (Moscow, Russian Federation, May-June 2016) International Education Award – Ukraine Scholarship (Visiting Professor, Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies, Edmonton, AB, Canada, July-August, 2016)